SENATOR DICKINSON: Mr. President, would Senator Barnett yield to a question. Senator Barnett, it is very difficult to...escrow accounts, you bet...it is very difficult to obtain loans on houses at all when you are outside of an incorporated area, but if I were to be so fortunate as to obtain one on my house in the country on the farm, do you suppose I would have to pay into an escrow account to pay taxes and interest on the value of the total amount of buildings on the farmstead, which might include and does include two pretty good houses and a complete set of farm buildings as was quoted in the World-Herald this morning?

SENATOR BARNETT: What are you trying to get at? Anybody that has got a house valued at what you have got doesn't need an escrow account. They will pay cash.

SENATOR DICKINSON: So as we now stand, the Omaha Senators are poor, dumb, and what else?

SENATOR BARNETT: Old.

SENATOR DICKINSON: This one is only poor and dumb, dumb and old but when this gets straightened out he will also be poor.

PRESIDENT: Did that answer the question for a lot of people, Senator? The question is the advancement of Senator Barnett's or...the motion is to advance LB 502. Record. We will try it again. Record your vote. Have you voted? Record.

CLERK: 34, 2, Mr. President, 34 ayes, 2 nays.

PRESIDENT: The bill is advanced.

CLERK: Mr. President, may I read some material into the record.

PRESIDENT: Certainly.
